Peculiar

Many peculiar points make Hood's Sar-parilla superior to all other medicines. Peculiar in combination, proportion. and preparation of ingredien Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies reparation of ingredients, proportion, preparation of ingredients, les Sarsaparilla possesses uil curative value of the known remedies of vegetable kingmuliar in its strength Hood's Sarfilla is the only medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's. Peculiar in its medicinal merits, its Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hiththe vegetable king-Peculiar in its lishes cures hith

Peculiar in its medicinal Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cur-erto unknown, and has won for itself the title of "The greatest blood purifier ever discovered."

Peculiar in its "good name home,"—there is now cof Hood's Sarsaparilla Lowell, where than of all purifiers.

Peculiar in its made, than of all purifiers.

Peculiar in its made, the popuration has cover attained such popularity in so short a time, and retained its popularity and confidence among all classes of people so steadfastly.

Do not be induced to buy other preparations, but be sure to get the Peculiar Medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla Sold by all drugglets. Si; six for St. Prepared only by C. L. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

GREENFIELD.

December 10th, 1888. Mrs. Lou Boyd is visiting relatives at Chillicothe.

Miss Lizzie D. Wilson, a young lady about twenty years of age, daughter of Mr. Samuel Wilson, died at about five o'clock last Saturday evening, after several months' sickness with consumption. The funeral services took place Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Nelson is lying very low with

The Sons of Veterans of this place held their annual election of officers for the ensuing year last Tuesday evening, with the following result: Captain, Frank Wilson; First Lieutenant, Ed. Pratt; Second Lieutenant, Wm. Stroble; Camp Council, Charles Eckert, Silas Rooks and L. P. Saxton; Delegate to the Division Encampment, E. G. Miller; Alternate, John T. Harrison.

The members of the M. E. Sunday School are preparing a cantata, entitled "Young America's Triumph," which will be presented to the public on Christmas Eve at the Town Hall.

Mr. Chas. Boyd, telegraph operator at the O.S. depot, has about recovered from a sprained back, and is again on duty. Mr. Walter Farnsworth, engineer at Rucker & Co.'s stone quarry, left last Saturday for his home near London, England.

Mrs. Robert Story is reported quite ill from paralysis.

Mrs. Sallie Bush left the latter part of last week for Portsmouth, to visit her Mrs. Dr. McKee, of Bainbridge, spent a portion last week here visiting friends.

Mr. Philip McCann, formerly a resi dent of this city, now located at Winchester, Ind., spent last week here visiting relatives.

Mrs. Rev. Brice and daughter left the first of the week for Cincinnati to remain several weeks.

Mrs. Hannah Case and family were called to Jackson the first of last week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Case's aged mother, Mrs. Hannah Owens. She was in her 92d year.

The report circulated here last week that Frank McCann was married at Cincinnati was not true.

WINKLE.

December 10th, 1888. Elder Hoppis will address the congregation at Union Saturday night and Sun-D. C. Winkle and wife attended the funeral of little Chlora, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amelia Sauner, near Mowrytown, Sunday, W. B. Ruble and Miss Maggie Kibler spent last week near Witlettaville visiting relatives and friends,

W. K. Ruble treated his school to a spelling bee Friday night. The Columbia band furnished some excellent music.

A. C. Surber was at home Sunday.

Miss Ella Ruble, who has been spending the summer and fall near Willettsville, came home Saturday to spend the winter.

Mac Stanforth and wife visited relatives at Wilmington over Sunday.

Miss Sarah E. Fender is vising Chas. Robinson and family.

Rev. Willis will commence a series of meetings at Sonners' Chapel to-night (Monday).

Michael Winkle visited Frank Vance and family near Hollowtown Friday.

The Shoffner school is progressing finely under the management of E. G. Fender. E. G. is one of our enterpris-

LEESBURG.

December 10th, 1888. Miss Bertha Bridwell, of Hillsboro, is risiting her sunt, Mrs. E. R. Beeson.

Mamie Gathran, who has been visiting relatives in Cincinnati, returned home the fore part of the week.

David Kinzer was called to the bedside of his daughter in Cincinnati Saturday.

Rev. Wilson, of Bowersville, was visiting relatives in this place the first of the

The general history class organized by Prof. Kay met at the residence of Dr. Ladd Friday evening. After the lesson was recited the remainder of the evening was spent in music and eating apples.

Miss Mary Teter is visiting her cousin in Cincinnati.

Miss Maggie Morrison spent Sunday with her mother near Fall Creek.

Myrta Hodson, of Samantha, is spending a few days with Sallie Redkey.

The alarm of fire was given Saturday at the American House. The bed-room adjoining the wast-room was on fire. It contained two beds which were consumed by the flames. Mr. John F. Kahill, of Kenison, O., a traveling man, discovered it, and by the assistance of others got the beding thrown out of the room. [ It is a mystery how the fire got Miss Fannie Covan entertained a few of her friends at her home Saturday evening.

The teachers of this place attended the Teachers' Association at Hillsboro Saturday.

Mrs. Hattie Daniels, after a three weeks' visit with her mother in this place, returned to her home in Springfield Wednesday.

Capt. Chas. Turner, our big cattle dealer, has just completed the finest barn in the township. It's finished up in cottage style with windows, doors, cornices, etc.

It is rumored that Capt. John R. Horst will be with us about the 22d inst. and remain some days for the purpose of a thorough organization of the East Precinct.

Col. D. K. Johnson seems to be the most energetic man in our locality these days, as he is making extensive improvements about his race grounds and also his facilities for the stabling and care of a large number of horses.

It is rumored that James Durnell will, next spring, erect a daisy of a cage for the benefit of an unknown bird.

Mr. Jade Wright and wife, of Hardin's Creek, have just returned from a two months' visit in Iows. He does not fancy that portion of our boundless continent. He thinks there is too much mud, wind, rain, poor fences and cold weather to suit him in that delightful locality.

The law suit between Dall & Co., wholesale grocerymen of Washington C. H., and Martin Slaughter, of this place, as to the right of property consisting of a stock of groceries was decided by Squire Ladd in favor of the Washington

NEW LEXINGTON.

December 10th, 1888. S. C. Ferguson, of Cincinnati, was a guest at the Highland House last Thurs-

G. E. Hansell and wife were in Hillsboro last Friday. Cards are out for the wedding of Mr. Newt Barrett, a well-known visitor at this place. Prof. Barrett and the Misses Boatright attended the association at Hillsboro last Saturday.

Frank Woodmansee, of New Vienna, visited his sister, Mrs. Alice Hixson, last Wednesday.

The pupils of the High School are making preparations for an entertainment to be given during the holidays They will render the dramas "Above the Clouds" and "Under the Laurels."

Mr. Charles Haines and Miss Allie Clark were united in marriage last Thursday evening at New Vienna, by Rev. C. L. Conger. A reception was given them on Friday at the groom's

MOWRYTOWN.

Becember 10th, 1888. Prof. Ellison has finally resolved to preach. It seems that we cannot retain a teacher.

G. W. Deihl and J. J. Galliett will go to Cincinnati some time this week to purchase holiday goods.

The U. B. Sunday school has decided to have a Christmas tree. A very good time is expected. The construction train was on the road yesterday (Sunday) at work.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amiel Sonner died Saturday morning, December 8th, of a severe cold. The funeral was preached by Rev. Galbreath, of Sardinia, after which the remains were interred in the cemetery. The parents have the sincere sympathy of this community in this the loss of their December 10th, 1888.

Grandma Smart, who has been on the sick list for some time, is improving.

village.

BELFAST.

Measles are visiting our quiet little

Mr. John Saterfield and wife are the happy recipients of a fine young son; also Joe Sanger smiles upon his new boy.

Mr. John Anderson and family, of Adams county, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Thomas and Ed Gustin

Mr. D. B. Thompson spent the latter part of the week in Adams county.

Mr. Thomas Miligan, our accommodating hackman, has sold his hack to Mr. Mullenix and it now carries our mail so we have but the mail hack accommodations from here to Hillsboro three times a week.

Mr. Thomas Carey and wife spent Sunday with friends at Careytown.

'Squire C. F. Hall and son, Frank, of Dunkinsville, Adams county, were calling upon old friends there; also making a business call at the Hill City.

T. M. Cooper takes the train for Lima to attend the State Grange.

A. W. Milburn and wife spent Saturday night and Sunday with friends near Rainsboro.

Mrs. Lillian Bethel was called to the edside of a sick sister at Columbus the first of the week.

A few of the young folks of this neighporhood gathered at the residence of Mrs. Emily Matthews last Saturday night and spent the evening very pleasantly eating candy.

M. A. Garrett sold three hundred the M. E. Church. head of hogs last Saturday.

LITTLETON.

December 10th, 1888. Health tolerably good.

Hogs nearly all sold at $5. P. H. Shaffer attended the association at Hillsboro last Saturday. Rev Singer, the pastor of the Newlight Rev. Burnett, are visiting their many friends in this neighborhood.

Wiley Turner, of near Webertown, spent Sunday at the residence of Isaiah Tedrick.

Shaffer Bros. have purchased a corn mill and are now running it at full speed. Quite a number from this place atended the memorial services at Pricetown last Sunday.

Mrs. Addie Haines and two children, of this place, spent Sunday with friends in Buford.

Mrs. Anna Haborn, of Lynchburg, is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Nora Hasting, of this place. Mr. James Thomas and family spent Sunday with friends in Brown county. Mr. Wm. Hopkins and wife, of Lynchburg, spent a part of last week with friends in this place.

December 7th, 1888. John A. Hizer, of Cynthiana, Pike where she will make her future home county, spent a few days of the present | with her brother.

Daniel L. Frump had a wood-chopping to-day and will give an oyster supper tonight.

Minor Williamson had no school the past week on account of the measles in the school.

A. W. Milburn and wife, of Belfast, while on a visit to Newell's Mill last week visited the latter's parents here. Tom Ford, of Indiana, is spending a few days with his brother.

Daniel Setty and wife, of Adams county, visited their grand-parents last

A very pleasant and social gathering was held at the residence of Wm. Williamson fon Thursday, it being his 62d birthday. Among the presents was a nice overcoat presented by his daughter, Mary.

Mrs. David Lawson is staying with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Robb, who is very poorly with measles.

Frank Bush and Mary Williamson, of Jeffersonville, attended the surprise of Wm. Williamson.

MARSHALL.

December 10th, 1888. Mrs. Charley Ross is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Simpson.

Miss Sallie Kelso, of Sardinia, is visiting relatives here. Misses Ollie Williams and Elsie Roads were thrown from a horse while going home from church last Thursday night.

The former escaped without injury, but the latter had her arm dislocated and collar-bone fractured. The store of Mr. Robert Watts was broken into last Thursday night and goods taken to the amount of four or five hundred dollars. There will be a quilting at the Presbyterian Church next Saturday. The quilt has been pieced by the Mite Gatherers' Society, and anyone wishing to assist in in this missionary work will be heartily welcomed Saturday.

This powder never varies. A marvel of puriy, strength and wholesomeness. More eco-comical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of powders. Sold only in cans. Royal Baring Powders Co., 106 Wall St., N. Y.

EAST MONROE.

December 10th, 1888. Thomas Bridwell, of Westboro, Sundayed with G. W. Sapp and family. B. T. Pann, of New Vienna, and J. W. Penn and Joseph Head, of Hillsboro, were the guests of W. H. Penn's family on the 9th inst.

Protracted meeting is in progress at

A children's meeting was held at the M. E. Church last Friday evening under the auspices of Mrs. Gaddis. W. H. Sanders was at Cincinnati the latter part of the week. J. L. and C. D. Durnell, of Lerst urg were the guests of friends in town on Sunday. Rev. L. J. Reed attended the first Church at Pricetown, in company with quarterly meeting of the U. B. Church at Wilson's Chapel on the 8th and 9th inst.

Mr. Joseph Anders, of Iowa, and William Street, of Indiana, are visiting here.

BALD KNOB.

December 10th, 1888. Rev. Dwyer will preach at Sharps ville December 16th, at 10 o'clock a. m. Mr. and Mrs. John Graham, of near Weaversville, were the guests of Wm. Runyan Sunday.

Miss Libbie Hodson, who has been staying in Lynchburg for the past month, has returned home.

The farmers of this vicinity have commenced hauling corn to the distillery.

Haworth, of West Chapel, were the guests of Mr. Clem Aclor Sunday. Ellsworth Hodson has returned home

Mr. Jake Snyder and Miss Lizzie from a few weeks' visit in Illinois." Miss Emma Pearson left this place last Friday morning for Cincinnati, DODSONVILLE. December 10th, 1888.

Miss Dora Stroup, of Nevin, is the quest of her grandfather, Mr. James Stroup. A small child of Mr. and Mrs. James Wortham was interred in the Lutheran cemetery Sunday. Miss Josie Ellis, of Hillsboro, was the guest of S. M. Thompson Sunday. William Briggs, who has been spending the summer in the West, returned home Thursday. Mr. Robert Thompson was the guest of Clermont county friends Sunday. Quite a number of our young folks were highly entertained at a social given at Mr. S. M. Thompson's Wednesday evening and at John Briggs' Saturday evening. All report a pleasant time.

UNION COLLEGE.

December 10th, 1888. Elder Wm. Ellis, of Lynchburg, filled nis appointment here Sunday. Born-To Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bennett, girl.

Elder Hoppis, of Pomeroy, will preach at Union Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night. W. K. Ruble treated his pupils to spelling bee Friday night. Mr. W. B. Ruble and Miss Maggie Kibler, who have been visiting friends and relatives near Willettsville for the past week, returned home Saturday.

Holiday Souvenira

Our stock suitable for holiday gifts has never been so complete and diversi-fied as at present, comprising both the ornamental and useful, and articles varying from a few cents and upwards in value. We would advise an early selection, while the assortment is unbroke and while you can receive better atten tion than during the holiday rush Goods reserved until wanted.

Mustang Liniment | Mustang Liniment | Mustang Liniment | Mustang Liniment | Mustang Liniment

I. A. FRIBEL, Hillsboro, O.

RGAINS

Boots, Shoes, Slippers and Rubbers! FOR LADIES.

I have the largest stock of Fancy Slippers, Felt Slippers and all kinds of House Shoes for Christmas presents. I also have the largest stock of Fine Shoes, and can give you a neater fit for less money than any house in the county.

FOR GENTLEMEN

I have a large variety of Fancy and Plain Slippers and Pumps, fine Caliskin, Dom-gola and Kangaroo Shoes. Special bargains in

WOMEN'S AND CHILDREN'S HEAVY CALF SHOES. Lowest prices ever known in Boys' and Youths' Boots, at

C. RITTENHOUSE'S:

No. 20 South High St., nearly opp. P. O.

P. S.—This is headquarters for all kinds of Rubber Boots for men, women and children. This is the only place to get the genuine Snag-Proof Rubber Boot

Try our Try our Try our Try our Try our

Imperial Acme Saxony Midnight Factory

Try us for any kind or color of Yarn you want.

S.E. HIBBEN & SON

DOUBTFUL JACK AND HAPPY JOE

get an overcoat Says Jack to his friend Joe; And with but little cash to spend Where had I better go?

The smartest man can't tell From looking at a coat, just, if The goods will wear real well. And most of them "sheep cloding" men Are that keen on a trade

This buying clothes just bothers me!

About how clothes are made. And some, they stick the dollars on, And then you have to Jew Till they take off the excess put on, Whisperin', "Just for you.

Now I don't like that kind of way,

And blame me if I know

They'll lie like sixty, anyhow,

With just the little cash I've got Where it is best to go. Says Joe to Jack, I know your fix, For I've been that way, too; But you'll get over that right quick

If you'll trade where I do. Just you try WALKERS, and rely On every word they say,
And lay your money out dead sure
That you will make big pay.

Their prices are way down below The prices others ask, And folks as tries to sell with them

I tell you have a task. Jack bought his coat of

T. A. Walker & Co.

And he is happy, too.